While Vacancy Created By Departure of Commander Has Not Been Filled, Army Men Count on General Treat Being Selected to Head Department-Men to Sail on July Transport

Fifty-four officers of the Hawaiian Department, U. S. Army, headed by Brig.-Gen. Frederick S. Strong, department commander, will leave for the mainland on the July transport or as soon thereafter as possible. The order designating the officers to be transferred was received shortly before noon today at department headquarters.

Orders for the respective assignments of these officers will be issued upon their arrival at Washington.

The order received today is in answer to one sent by Gen. Strong on June 13, giving the names of all possible officers that could be spared from this department for immediate duty. Gen. Strong's message was in answer to a request from the

NEW UTILITIES MEMBERS AT FIRST MEETING

In its first meeting under the new organization, the public utilities commission this afternoon voted to have one member instead of three sit at investigations of fatal accidents hereafter to gather testimony. This was at the suggestion of W. T. Carden, the new chairman, and agreed to by Commissioner A. J. Gignoux and Commissioner Will P. Thomas. Gignoux was today named to investigate the death of Manuel Silva, an aged employe of the Oahu Railway Company, who fell a few weeks age from a freight car on the company's tracks. In case of investigations of corporations, Carden pointed out, the entire commis-

OFFICIAL CALL ISSUED FOR LIVESTOCK CONFERENCE The food commission has issued a call to all ranchmen, dairymen and other livestock growers on Oahu to meet the commission in a conference to be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms next Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The growers are asked to give suggestions and advice concerning practical methods which can be adopted by the commission to conserve and increase the meat supply on this island.

MAN ACCUSED OF HAVING OPIUM IN COURT

A preliminary hearing of the case of K. Fujiwara, a Japanese plumber charged with having opium in possession, was begun late this afternoon before U. S. Commissioner George S. Curry. The charge against the Japanese is that he was caught with 75 tins of opium, valued at about $9000, in his possession.

Agriculture Committee of Upper House Agrees to Absolute Prohibition of Spirits, Leaving Wine and Beer Up to President

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communi-cation Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26. + -The senate committee on agri-+ culture late today reached an agreement which calls for absolute prohibition of the manufac- + ture of alcoholic spirits during + the period of the war, and places + the question of making wines + and beer in the hands of the + President.

The section thus agreed to is + a substitute for the house prohi-+ tion feature of the food control bill, the measure under consideration by the committee. Importation of spirits is also to be prohibited.

The President is authorized to seize bonded liquors for redistil- + lation for industrial purposes, if + they are so needed.

CITY ATTORNEY FILES SUIT, CHARGING CRIMINAL LIBEL IN EDITORIAL 'ROASTING' PINKHAN

TERRITORY'S EXECUTIVE HAS NO PART IN ACTION, SAYS CRISTY—BROWN'S COMPLAINT DECLARES MALICE AND DEFAMATION IN ALLEGED REFLECTIONS ON GOVERN-OR'S AMERICANISM

Editor Matheson of the Advertiser was released on his own recogniz-ance until 9 o'clock next Friday morning following his arraignment at 2 o'clock this afternoon before Circuit Judge Hean. Matheson has retained the law firm of Andrews & Pittman as his counsel.

The sworn information charging Matheson with criminal libel was read by Deputy City Attorney A. M. Cristy. Andrews asked that plea be reserved until the latter part of this week, saying the charge was a misdemeanor and one that should be heard in the police court.

Attorney Cristy said it was the belief of the city authorities that the case was of sufficient importance to demand as speedy a trial as possible, and asked that trial begin on Friday if possible.

"The fact that this case refers to the governor is no reason why it should be brought into a higher court," Andrews maintained.

If the defense demands a trial by jury, the case probably will not go to trial before the early part of next September, as there can be no jury trials in July or August.

Suit for criminal libel against Roderick O. Matheson, editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, was brought by the city attorney's office today on behalf of Governor Lucius E. Pinkham.

Papers in the libel suit were filed in circuit court at 10:25 o'clock this morning. Third Circuit Judge Heen immediately ators had agreed to an important + issued a warrant and order for the arrest of Editor Matheson + amendment extending the scope + and for his appearance in the judge's court at 2 o'clock this

The city attorney's office informed the Star-Bulletin shortly after the filing of the suit, that the action is undertaken on its own initiative and without consultation with the governor. It was declared that the governor has had no part in it, the city attorney undertaking the suit on the ground that a public official had been maliciously and criminally libeled.

"Because Governor Pinkham in his official position could hardly bring a libel suit against the Advertiser, this office has taken it upon themselves to bring the suit," said A. M. Cristy, deputy city and county attorney this morning. "We have brought this suit ourselves without consulting the governor or his wishes on the matter, just as we would in any case where
